1. Praise God that Christy Harrison and Peter Sensenig, and their three children, have been welcomed into their new community in Beirut, Lebanon, and have received their residency permits. Pray for them as they become more acquainted with their new home and study Lebanese Arabic (p. 24).

2. Delicia Bravo Aguilar and Peter Wigginton, and their two daughters, have served in Quito, Ecuador, since 2015. They have had a difficult year, with family health issues and extensive travel. Pray for their family's peace and health (p. 30).

3. Joseph and Rachel Givens, and their two children, are at the beginning of their third term in Calais, France. They are currently in a transitional stage, as they are beginning to work with new organizations and Joseph anticipates beginning seminary next year. Pray for a smooth transition into these new responsibilities and opportunities (p. 23).

4. A long-time mission worker, who serves through supporting several Christian educational institutions throughout the world, has recently moved to a new country, where she can more readily receive the medical care she currently needs. Pray for her as she settles into her new living situation and heals her body (p. 10).

5. Praise God for everyone who has applied to participate in upcoming service programs and Just Peace Pilgrimages. Pray for them as they prepare themselves for the experiences they will soon embark on. Pray also that more people with a heart for service would consider applying to these programs.

6. Alfonsina and José Oyanguren have served in Castelli, Argentina, since 2004. Pray for them as their family dynamics have changed and their children have experienced difficult health concerns and life changes (p. 31).

7. A family serving in Nepal has experienced several devastating events over the past few months, including the unexpected and expected loss of family members and severe flooding in the regions near where they serve. Pray that they are able to experience a season of rest and renewal after having traveled extensively and borne the emotional burden that these events have brought on (p. 16).

8. Praise God for Service Adventure unit local leadership who, along with the host congregations and support committees, provide strong support for the Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Anchorage, Alaska, units. Renee Neufeld, Michelle Main and Cindy Weaver have all served as Service Adventure unit leaders in the past and bring that experience to supporting the current unit leaders (p. 42).

9. Peace Order is a nongovernmental organization committed to promoting social cohesion and peace through community-based restorative justice and conflict transformation initiatives. Pray for them as they bring the peace of God through guiding people to interact with one another with mutual respect (p. 11).

10. Kate Widmer serves at La Prairie Church of Montbéliard, France. She leads several ministries for the people in her community, through the church, including hosting groups for school-aged girls, teaching women in the community to sew, and working in the church's café and bookstore. Pray that the community of Montbéliard would feel the love of Christ through her daily work (p. 25).

11. Mennonite Mission Network acts as a bridge for Mennonite congregations to participate in global mission work. Pray that God strengthens that vital connection, inspiring more individuals, families and churches to participate in the shared call to prayer, giving, sending and welcoming returned servants.

12. Toni and Matthew Krabill serve in Accra, Ghana. Pray for the ministries they participate in that care for new believers from Muslim backgrounds, supporting them in the transition to Christianity and all of the difficulties that entails for their familial, social and religious lives (p. 10).

13. Jonah and Memee Yang work to empower women, strengthen marriages and provide theological training for the Hmong people living in Southeast Asia. Pray for them as they minister through the Sister Care, Compassionate Care and Journey curricula (p. 17).

14. The Argentine Bible Society is a Bible publisher and distributor that helps produce Bible translations in Indigenous languages. Pray for their important work of ensuring that everyone has access to the Bible in their own language (p. 33).

15. The Mennonite Network of French speakers is a network of Mennonites from France and Switzerland that provides encouragement, collaboration and visioning with French-speaking people. Pray that their presence provides continual support for all they serve (p. 27).

16. The Congo Partnership Council is an alliance of Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission, Evangelical Mennonite Church of Congo, Mennonite Mission, Mennonite Brethren Church of Congo, Mennonite Church of Congo, Mennonite Central Committee, Mennonite Church USA and Mission Network. Pray for their continued work ministering to the people of the Democratic Republic of Congo (p. 11).

17. The Mennonite Christian Church of Ecuador (ICME) is a primarily indigenous multicultural conference formed by leaders who have received Anabaptist theological education. Pray for these diverse churches as they serve their local communities and share the good news of Christ (p. 34).

18. Ben and Laurel Woodward-Breckbill, and their two children, have recently begun their second term in Paris, France, after having spent the summer in the United States. Pray for them as the family settles back into their lives in France and as Laurel shifts her role and finds new family and work rhythms (p. 26).

19. Pray for all of the international mission workers and North American service participants spending the holidays away from their families, some for the first time.

20. A mission worker who travels frequently to Asia to train and support Christian Health Educators has just completed a busy time of travel. Pray that he has time to rest and that the people he helped train will be effective in their evangelism to people around them (p. 15).

21. Praise God for the Mennonite Voluntary Service (MVS) local unit leaders who, along with host congregations and support committees, provide strong support for MVS units: Alice Price in Alamosa, Colorado, Joanna Lawrence Shenk in San Francisco, California, and Lisa Showalter in Tucson, Arizona (pp. 40-41).

22. Koinonia Theological Center is an educational entity in Spain that seeks to strengthen Spanish-speaking Christians in ministry, service and evangelism through communal and dialogical study. Pray that students in this program are able to deepen their understanding of biblical concepts, theology and ministry practices in community (p. 28).
