If you desire insurance coverage for your household personal items, Mutual Aid eXchange can issue a policy in your name insuring your items. Coverage will apply anywhere in the world, but Elkhart, Indiana is considered “home base” and you need to use the Elkhart Mission Network mailing address as your address for mailing and billing. An inland marine policy will be used to provide the insurance coverage.

- Each worker or household will purchase an individual insurance policy that will insure the amount of belongings appropriate for your family.
- The premium will depend on the limit of coverage you need.
- The deductible choices are a minimum of $250.
- Any individual item with a value must be listed on a schedule.
- Each policy will last one year.
- Personal property is only covered while participating in MVS.
- You will be given a prorated refund if MVS term ends before year of insurance coverage is completed.

If you desire insurance coverage for your belongings, send the following information to Mutual Aid eXchange at the contact info above:

1. Name and address where you are located.
2. Contact information – phone, e-mail, etc.
3. Mission Network Elkhart address - PO Box 370, 1601 W Beardsley Ave, Elkhart IN 46515
4. Limit of coverage – the Actual Cash Value of all your belongings.
5. List describing all individual items (computer-$900, camera-$200, Miscellaneous property-$1,000).
6. Choose a deductible - $250 or $500. The cost in most cases is almost the same. We may have to choose a deductible based on your location.

Your coverage will be on a Mutual Aid eXchange (MAX) policy. MAX is formed by ten regional church related mutual aid property insurance companies joining together to provide improved insurance products to the Anabaptist church community.
