24. Mission Network's North American Ministry team will be spending the coming months planning out Just Peace Pilgrimages for spring 2027. Pray for this team, as they work to ensure everyone participating in next year's pilgrimages have meaningful experiences (p. 39).

25. Pray for the Council of Indigenous Evangelical Peoples and Organizations in Ecuador (FEINE) as they seek justice and peace for their people and nation (p. 35).

26. Today, the United States celebrates Thanksgiving, a complex holiday fraught with a history of oppression and violence against Indigenous peoples that also holds room for hope and blessings. As families and friends gather today to celebrate all they are thankful for, pray for those who experience pain and grief related to the atrocities that took place to make the holiday possible.

27. A couple serving in a sensitive ministry in Nepal retired last year. Their family continues to live in Nepal and actively participates in their church and outreach to their community. Pray for their continued energy to serve others throughout their retirement years.

28. Charles Buller, who leads the Africa Leadership Coaching Network, is planning a trip to Angola early next month to launch module two of the Leadership Coaching Certificate Program, after having a similar trip cancelled in August. Pray that this trip is successful (p. 11).

29. Alfonsina and José Oyanguren serve in Castelli, Argentina. Recently, their son moved back home after having a difficult time transitioning to life in college. And their daughter has been facing several postpartum health issues that have required surgery. Pray for their children in these times of difficulty (p. 31).

30. Praise God for the work JCS International, Mongolia, is doing through their relationship skills seminars. These seminars help teach women how to find solutions to their parenting and marriage challenges, helping transform their relationships with their families (p. 20).

1. Martine Audéoud works with several Christian universities around the world. Pray for her and her family as they experience a time of transition and medical care. Pray also for her students, as many are experiencing illness, financial constraints and devastation due to violence in their home countries (p. 10).

2. Last month, a group of friends participated in a Civil Rights Just Peace Pilgrimage in the U.S. South. Now that this group has returned home, pray for the participants as they live with and into the new learnings they gained on their trip (p. 39).

3. Today, the United States is holding a high-stakes midterm election that will determine the country's path forward for the next two-plus years. Pray for peace, regardless of the outcome of this election.

4. United Mission to Nepal continues to respond to the devastation caused by flooding in the Rasuwa District of Nepal. Pray for the many families who have been displaced due to the damage that this natural disaster caused (p. 20).

5. Caleb and Stephanie Schrock-Hurst serve in Taiwan. Over the next few months, they have several international trips planned and are worried that their language skills may atrophy while they are away. Pray for their continued learning and travels (p. 16).

6. Today and tomorrow, Mennonite Mission Network staff Eric Frey Martin and Alex Mace will lead seminars at Mennonite Church USA's Waging Peace militarism summit in Leola, Pennsylvania. Pray for presenters and participants alike, as they explore the theme of peacemaking in an age of war, polarization, nationalism and violence.

7. The Venezuela Global Mission Partnership supports the Network of Mennonite Missions of Venezuela and includes Central Plains Mennonite Conference of Mennonite Church USA, the Colombia Mennonite Church and Mission Network. Pray for their ministries in church planting, biblical and theological education, and food distribution (p. 37).

8. Pray for Colorado Springs, Colorado, Service Adventure participants, Josiah Eisenhour and Ralph Lipscomb, who are working at Greccio Housing, a local nonprofit that exists to create stable, affordable-housing options for low-income people. Ralph and Josiah work to help keep the Greccio Housing units warm, safe, and well-maintained (p. 42).

9. La Casa Grande, Benin, is a ministry for vulnerable children that also includes education, sanitation and sustainable agriculture programs. Pray that the resources that La Casa Grande provides would help community members find their way out of poverty (p. 11).

10. Students at LCC International University, in Lithuania, are participating in a project that brings local and international students together to learn how cultural differences can enrich communication. Pray that this program will lead to expanded perspectives and more robust inclusion (p. 28).

11. On this Armistice Day, pray that Isaiah's prophecy would be fulfilled through us today: "And they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning knives. Nation will not lift up a sword against nation, And never again will they learn war" (2:4).

12. David and Rebekka Stutzman, and their three children, have served in Germany for 14 years. Pray for them as they network with churches and young adults throughout Germany who are seeking to live and work in missional communities in a post-Christian context (p. 25).

13. For the next three days, the German Mennonite Peace Committee will host a conference in which participants and presenters will explore how conscientious objection is an active resistance to violence and push for peace. Pray that acts of peace, like this one, will continue to make a difference in the world today (p. 27).

14. Colleen and Pablo Fast have been serving in Brazil, since 1992. They are now contemplating what it would look like to retire in the next three to six years. Pray for them as they begin to prepare for this major life change and as they consider who might be able to continue their ministry once they retire (p. 31).

15. Toni and Matthew Krabill serve in Accra, Ghana. Matthew promotes Christian-Muslim relations and peacebuilding in an academic setting. Pray for Matthew as he helps develop a discipleship program at The Sanneh Institute that addresses the unique needs of believers from Muslim backgrounds (p. 10).

16. Youth-Hope of Africa is an organization that helps youth through life-skills education, job training and spiritual development in Ivory Coast. Pray that these young people will use what they learn to create a better life for themselves, their families and their communities (p. 12).

17. The Latin American Anabaptist Seminary (SEMILLA) provides biblical and theological education for Anabaptists in Latin America and Spanish-speakers worldwide through virtual education. Pray that SEMILLA's students would use what they are learning in their courses to spread the good news and to bring justice to their communities (p. 36).

18. Pray for MVSers Findley Holland and Craig Elias, who are working at Community Home Repair Projects of Arizona (CHRPA), in Tucson, Arizona. CHRPA is a non-profit agency dedicated to assisting low-income homeowners by providing emergency home repairs and adaptive and safety modifications for people with disabilities (p. 40).

19. Joseph and Rachel Givens are currently in a time of transition, as Joseph awaits the beginning of his seminary studies and the family looks for ways to support the migrant community in Calais, France. Pray that they would find opportunities to meet people where they are (p. 23).

20. A family serving in Nepal has experienced deep grief this past year. In addition to living and working in the aftermath of the flooding that hit Nepal, the woman's mother and stepmother both passed away over the past few months. Pray for the whole family as they process their grief and move forward (p. 16).

21. Today and tomorrow, Bienenberg Theological Seminary, in Switzerland, will host a conference about commitment. Pray for participants as they learn how to be committed to service, while avoiding dominating others and burning themselves out (p. 28).

22. As we enter into the holiday season, pray for Mission Network service program participants and workers throughout the world who will celebrate the holidays away from their homes and families. Praise God for the technologies that allow people to feel connected to their loved ones, even when they can't spend time together in person.

23. The Northeast Asia Regional Peacebuilding Institute (NARPI) included a youth initiative during their summer training this year, in which youth interested in peacebuilding engaged in intercultural dialogue and dreamed about what peace in Northeast Asia might look like. Praise God for NARPI and the work they are doing to encourage a future of peace (p. 21).
